

Cybermobbing, Sexting, Posing, Grooming im Alltag der Jugend-Sozialarbeit
Projekt Nr. 2014-2-DE04-KA205-001642

The Greek Law towards Cyberbullying and Racism

1) Laws:

2472/1997: Law for the protection of privacy and the protection of the personal data

927/ 1979: Initial law against racism in the society, introduced in 1979.

285/2014: The latest law against racisms behavior and actions in the society, introduced in 2014.

4322/2015: The latest law against bullying, introduced in 2015.

2) Articles of criminal code:

299 – This article refers how to be protected from actions done against the Human Life .

301 - This article refers how to be protected from actions which support suicide.

304 – This article refers how to be protected from external actions which may lead to end a pregnancy.

306 – This article refers how to be protected from actions which may lead to the presentation to the public of personal data.

307 – This article refers how to be protected from missing actions, the existence of which may protect the human life.

308 – This article refers how to be protected from actions which may cause a simple body injury.

310 – This article refers how to be protected from actions which may cause a heavy body injury.

311 – This article refers how to be protected from actions which may cause a human death.

312 – This article refers how to be protected from actions related with continuous bad behavior which may occurs biological or mental.

360 – This article indicates the person who are responsible for the general behavior and/ or certain actions done by children under 18 Years old.

361 – This article refers how to be protected from actions which may lead to insult of a person without any reason or excuse.

363 – This article refers how to be protected from actions which are related with the dissemination of information related with the defamation of a person.

3) Articles of civil code:

914 – This article refers to the demand for money, compensation etc for a morale damage at personal level after actions of individuals, organizations etc.

57 – This article refers to actions like insult or defamation against a person caused by any individual or organization .

59 – This article refers to actions aiming the justice for a person who was victim of immoral initiatives from an individual or organization.